

Coloring Page: Goddess Saraswati

Instructions: This page has been formatted for coloring on either the computer (using software such as Microsoft Paint) or on paper (just click "Print" on the top menu of this screen). If you get stuck, there are examples of colored pages on the website! Try to learn the story of each picture as you go along.

Goddess Saraswati, the wife of Lord Brahma, is the Hindu Goddess of knowledge, music, and arts. Her four arms represent the four aspects of human learning: mind, intellect, alertness, and ego. Each of these four arms and the items in her hands represent the four Holy Vedas and three forms of literature. She holds a book of the sacred Vedas (the primary sacred book for Hindus), a garland of crystals (representing poetry), a pot of water from the Ganges (representing purity and prose), and a veena (representing the power of music and its ability to purify human thought).
